INTRODUCTION

As specified in FAR 61.87, prior to your first solo flight, you must demonstrate satisfactory knowledge of appropriate portions of FAR Parts 61 and 91 to your authorized instructor. You must also show adequate knowledge to operate safely during solo flight in your (David Wayne Hooks) local training environment. This demonstration must include the satisfactory completion of a written examination to be administered and graded by your instructor who endorses your student pilot certificate for solo flight.

All answers to the following questions can be located in the Federal Aviation Regulations Part 1 (Definitions), Part 43 (Maintenance), Part 61 (Certification), Part 91 (General Operating and Flight Rules), and NTSB 830 (Incident Reporting), Aeronautical Information Manual, Pilot Operating Handbook, Airport Facility Directory, Airplane Flying Handbook, Advisory Circulars, FAA publications and the United Flight Systems Student Handbook.
